THE CITY CAMPAIGN.

RICHMOND, VA., WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 12, 1887.

MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC COM-MITTER LAST NIGHT.

Nominations Made by the Reformers and Which Are to be Acted on by the Republicans.

The weekly meeting of the City Democratic Committee was held last night in the Circuit-Court room. Eight o'clock was the appointed hour of meeting, but it was a half hour later "Your petitioner, Rufus A. Avers, respectfully shows that he is a citizen of the United States of America, resident of the State of Virginia, and the chair and called the meeting to

Some of the members arrived before 8 o'clock and others came in one or two The unanimous opinion was that on the 8th of November the Reformers will be overwhelmed in defeat. The lowest estimate was that the Democratic vote will be at least 7,000 and that all the colored men will not, by long odds, vote with the Reformers. THOSE PRESENT.

The following members answered to their names at roll-call: Messrs, Wingo, Valentine, Curtis, Patram, Gibbons, Haskins, Grimes, Cummings, Burton, Tenser, Ellett, Levy, Hulcher, Hill, M. W. Wood, Bigger, Wren, and Teller.

Chairman Wingo stated that the Excentive Committee had mapped out much important work, and he hoped this committee would lend that committee every possible assistance. He was gratified at the result of the primary. The poll-books show who voted. It is now necessary that those who did not vote at the primary shall be waited open. He urged every member of the committee to use his personal influence and bring out as many voters as possiwas heard and the prisoner remanded to the penitentiary. The prisoner has but one year more to serve, and he preferred this course rather than take the risk of being sent back to the court in Reanoke.

A Victim of Chloroform. Coroner Taylor was yesterday afternoon called upon to view the body of a colored woman who was found dead in the room of Thomas Scott (also colored) on the premises No. 2 south Second street.

According to Scott's account, de-ceased, with whom he was acquainted, came there early in the morning, and said that she was very tired and wished he returned. He got back about 230 and found her in bed dead.

The woman was about thirty years old, had been employed in a hospital here in the capacity of nurse, and was dismissed from the place because she would steal chloroform and intoxicate herself with it. Whenever and wherever she could get chloroform she would thus use it.
From all that Coroner Taylor could
